Report of Independent Auditor

To the Board of Directors
Tampa Bay Performing Arts Center, Inc.
d/b/a David A. Straz, Jr. Center for the Performing Arts
Tampa, Florida

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Tampa Bay Performing Arts Center, Inc. d/b/a David A. Straz, Jr. Center for the Performing Arts (the "Straz Center") (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as of September 30, 2016 and 2015, and the related consolidated statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Straz Center as of September 30, 2016 and 2015, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other Matters*Supplementary Information*

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements as a whole. The consolidating schedules and Straz Center Stand Alone statements, on pages 27 to 31, are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the consolidated financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the consolidated financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements or to the consolidated financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the consolidated financial statements as a whole.

Organization – The Tampa Bay Performing Arts Center, Inc. (the “Straz Center”) was incorporated on September 15, 1980 to manage and operate the performing arts facility pursuant to the lease with the City of Tampa. The Straz Center’s purpose is to enhance the quality of life in the Tampa Bay region by educating and developing their audiences through performing arts, with an emphasis on diversity and quality.

The Straz Center established the Tampa Bay Performing Arts Center Foundation, Inc. (the “Foundation”) on April 28, 1997 to perform the fund-raising efforts for the support of the Straz Center. The activities of the Foundation began in October 1999.

As two-thirds (the majority) of the Foundation’s Board of Directors is required to be comprised of Straz Center Board Trustees and the assets of the Foundation revert to the Straz Center in the event the Foundation is dissolved, the financial activities of the Straz Center and the Foundation have been consolidated. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

In November 2009, a substantial endowment gift was made to the Foundation. In special recognition of the donor’s generosity, the organization renamed the Straz Center for branding purposes and, accordingly, the Straz Center began doing business as the David A. Straz, Jr. Center for the Performing Arts (Straz Center) effective November 11, 2009.

Collectively, the organizations are hereafter referred to as the Straz Center.

In its fiscal year ended September 30, 2010, the Straz Center established a limited liability company (LLC), Broadway Genesis LLC, in support of its mission and long-term strategic initiative of creating and producing major theatrical productions for national and international touring purposes. This entity is considered a single member LLC and is disregarded for tax purposes. Broadway Genesis LLC continues to serve as the management company intended to own and potentially license the respective rights acquired for respective theatrical productions and manage and govern the corporate oversight of the specific production LLCs.

Basis of Accounting – The consolidated financial statements of the Straz Center have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”). Revenues, expenses, gains and losses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets of the Straz Center and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

- Unrestricted net assets consist of unrestricted amounts that are available for use in carrying out the operations of the Straz Center. These include expendable resources, which have been designated for special use by the Board of Trustees consisting of the following:

	2016	2015
Straz Center unrestricted endowment investments	$ 332,891	$ 436,061
Straz Center capital expenditures	441,016	2,167,239
Foundation unrestricted endowment investments	5,165,848	4,494,566
	$ 5,939,755	$ 7,097,866

- Temporarily restricted net assets represent those amounts that are not available until future periods and/or are donor restricted for specific purposes. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends and/or a purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and are reported in the consolidated statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions. Temporarily restricted gifts that are received and expended in the same fiscal year are classified as unrestricted revenue. Additionally, for temporarily restricted net assets that are solely time restricted, the Straz Center's policy is not to expend such net assets until they have been collected and thus released from restriction. Gifts of long-lived assets with explicit restrictions that specify how the assets are to be used and gifts of cash or other assets that must be used to acquire long-lived assets are reported as restricted support. Absent explicit donor stipulations about how those long-lived assets must be maintained, the Straz Center reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired long-lived assets are placed in service.
- Permanently restricted net assets result from gifts from donors who place restrictions on the use of the funds, which mandate that the original principal be invested in perpetuity. Generally, gains and related investment income on these gifts are available for unrestricted purposes, unless the donor designates restrictions on the use of earnings for a specific purpose, in which case the earnings are then considered temporarily restricted.

New Accounting Pronouncements – In May 2015, the FASB issued ASU 2015-07, Disclosures for Investments in Certain Entities That Calculate Net Asset Value per Share (or Its Equivalent). This ASU exempts investments measured using the Net Asset Value (“NAV”) practical expedient from categorization within the fair value hierarchy. The guidance requires retrospective application and is effective for the Straz Center for years beginning after December 15, 2016. As permitted, the Straz Center has elected early adoption and has applied the ASU retrospectively for all periods presented. Accordingly, investments measured using the NAV practical expedient have been removed from the categorization in the prior period disclosure of the fair value hierarchy.

Fair Value Measurements – The Straz Center applies the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) Topic 820 (“Topic 820”), Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, for fair value measurements of financial assets and financial liabilities that are recognized at fair value in the financial statements on a recurring basis. Topic 820 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or would be paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Topic 820 established a three-tier hierarchy to maximize the use of observable market data and minimize the use of unobservable inputs, and to establish classification of fair value measurements for disclosure purposes. Inputs refer broadly to the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, including assumptions about risk. Inputs may be observable or unobservable. Observable inputs are inputs that reflect the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity. Unobservable inputs are inputs that reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability developed based on the best information available.

Liquidity – Assets are presented in the accompanying consolidated statements of financial position according to their nearness to cash, and liabilities according to their nearness of their maturity and resulting use of cash.

Cash and Cash Equivalents – For purposes of the consolidated statements of cash flows, the Straz Center considers all highly liquid debt instruments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents, including those classified as short-term investments.

Pledges Receivable – Unconditional promises to give that are expected to be collected within one year are recorded at their net realizable value. Unconditional promises to give that are expected to be collected in future years are recorded at the present value of estimated future cash flows. The discounts on pledges receivable made before September 30, 2008 are computed using a risk-free rate applicable to the year in which the promise was received. The discounts on pledges receivable made after October 1, 2008 are computed using a rate commensurate with the risk of the pledges receivable in accordance with ASC Topic 820. Amortization of the discount is included in community support in the accompanying consolidated statements of activities. The discount rates applied range from 0.79% to 5.23% at September 30, 2016 and 2015.

Inventory – Inventory is stated at the lower of cost or market. Cost is determined using the first-in, first-out method.

Investments and Endowment Investments – Investments in equity securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are measured at fair value in the consolidated statements of financial position. The Straz Center also invests monies in other investments, which trade in various commodity pools and are recorded at fair value (Note 2). Investment income (including realized and unrealized gains and losses on investments, interest, and dividends) is included in the consolidated statements of activities as increases or decreases in unrestricted net assets unless the income is restricted by donor or law.

Other Long-term Investments – Other long-term investments primarily consists of investments in theatrical show productions, investments in other theatrical production type companies, and the cash surrender value of a life insurance policy on the President of the Straz Center.

The investments in theatrical show productions are recorded at cost, reduced by any investment returns, and amounted to $176,867 and $202,384 at September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. The cash surrender value of the life insurance policy amounted to $561,609 and $514,177 at September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively, and is intended to finance the future obligation under a deferred compensation agreement, included in other accrued expenses on the consolidated statements of financial position.

Beneficial Interest in Assets Held by Community Foundation – The Straz Center and Foundation has established an endowment at the Community Foundation of Tampa Bay, Inc. (the “Community Foundation”), and has identified itself as the beneficiary. The value of the Foundation’s endowment is reflected in the accompanying consolidated financial statements as beneficial interest in assets held by Community Foundation.

Furniture, Equipment, and Leasehold Improvements – Furniture, equipment, and leasehold improvements are stated at cost if purchased, or at estimated fair value at the date of receipt if acquired by gift. Depreciation is recognized over the estimated useful lives of the assets of 3-25 years using the straight-line method. An exception is given to leasehold improvements associated with the facility, which is leased from the City of Tampa, and are depreciated over a useful life of 30 years. Maintenance, repairs, and minor renewals are expensed as incurred.

Other Accrued Expenses – Other accrued expenses include the Straz Center’s obligation under a deferred compensation agreement with the President which is a) earned based on two specific vesting periods and a series of three additional service years and b) payable through a series of payments upon an agreed retirement age being reached.

Self-Insured Claims Liability – The Straz Center is primarily self-insured, up to certain limits, for employee unemployment insurance claims. The Company records claims paid as expenses when incurred and accrues a liability and associated expense for an estimate of the remaining portion of claims reported but not paid, and claims incurred but not reported, based on accepted actuarial methods. The self-insured claims liability was $100,000 as of September 30, 2015, and is included in accounts payable and accrued expenses in the accompanying consolidated statement of financial position. Management determined that no self-insured claims liability was necessary as of September 30, 2016. The self-insured claims liability represents a significant estimate established by management. The determination of such claims and expenses and the appropriateness of the related liability is continually reviewed and updated by management. The amount ultimately paid may differ from this estimate.

Advertising Costs – Advertising costs related to specific events and classes are capitalized and amortized in the period of the event or class, which are reported under program and essential services expenses in the consolidated statements of activities. At September 30, 2016 and 2015, advertising costs of $426,995 and $304,993, respectively, were included as a component of other current assets in the consolidated statements of financial position.

Income Taxes – The Straz Center is exempt from income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Management has evaluated the effect of the guidance provided by U.S. GAAP on Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. Management believes that the Straz Center continues to satisfy the requirements of a tax-exempt organization as of September 30, 2016. Management believes that the unrelated business income generated by the Straz Center is not material to the consolidated financial statements.

Revenue Recognition – In the absence of donor restrictions, contributions are considered to be available for unrestricted use and related income is recognized in the period when the contribution, pledge, or unconditional promise to give is received.

Government funding and grants are recorded as unrestricted revenue as funds have been reimbursed for expenditures made for specific needs of the Straz Center.

Deferred revenue represents cash received from advance ticket sales, concession, education class tuition, subscriber memberships, and event sponsorships, which is recognized after related performances, classes, and events are completed and the associated cost settlements are calculated. Rent income is recorded as earned.

Other Gifts – The Straz Center is a beneficiary of several funds held and controlled by the Community Foundation. The total fair value of these funds held at the Community Foundation as of September 30, 2016 and 2015 were $4,650,428 and $4,506,901, respectively. These funds are not included in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

The annual net distributions allocated by the Community Foundation during the year ended September 30, 2016 of $88,444 and $181,630 are available for distribution to the Straz Center and Foundation, respectively. Accordingly, the amounts are recognized as income in the period earned. Net distributions allocated to the Straz Center and Foundation for the year ended September 30, 2015 were $103,434 and $287,474, respectively. The annual net distributions allocated by the Community Foundation are included as a component of community support on the consolidated statements of activities.

Contributed Services – Contributed services are recognized as in-kind revenue at their estimated fair value when they create or enhance nonfinancial assets, or they require specialized skills, which would need to be purchased if they were not donated, and amounted to $2,232,692 and $2,588,278 for the years ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. Contributed services are included as a component of community support on the consolidated statements of activities.

Community members volunteer as ushers, house managers, tour guides, administrative assistants, and advisors. The 100% volunteer usher program is unique in the industry. A dollar valuation of their effort is not reflected in the consolidated financial statements; however, volunteer hours for the years ended September 30, 2016 and 2015 totaled 58,702 and 58,506, respectively.

Functional Allocation of Expenses – Expenses are allocated between program and essential services, general and administrative, and fundraising. These expenses are based on management's estimate of the benefit derived by each activity. Salaries and benefits exclude related costs for stagehands, which are included in artist and professional fees expenses. Such expenses are directly associated with the production of events.

Use of Estimates – The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Total investment return	$ 2,850,291	$ 130,440

Fair Value Measurements – The Straz Center records certain assets at fair value in accordance with the current accounting standards on Fair Value Measurements. The standard defines fair value as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. The standard also established a fair value hierarchy, which requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value.

The standard describes three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

- Level 1 – Inputs to the valuation methodology are quoted prices available in active markets for identical investments as of the reporting date;
- Level 2 – Inputs to the valuation methodology are other than quoted prices in active markets, which are either directly or indirectly observable as of the reporting date, and fair value can be determined through the use of models or other valuation methodologies; and
- Level 3 – Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable inputs in situations where there is little or no market activity for the asset or liability and the reporting entity makes estimates and assumptions related to the pricing of the asset or liability including assumptions regarding risk.

The carrying amounts shown in the table are included in the consolidated statements of financial position under the captions cash, short-term investments, endowment investments, other long-term investments, and beneficial interest in assets held by Community Foundation.

The Straz Center's accounting policy is to recognize transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy on the date of the event or change in circumstances that caused the transfer. There were no significant transfers into or out of Level 1, Level 2, or Level 3 for the year ended September 30, 2016.

A financial instrument's level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement, and does not necessarily correspond to management's perceived risk of that investment. Level 1 financial instruments are based on quoted prices in active markets. The following is a description of the valuation methodology used for Level 2 financial instruments.

Cash Equivalents – Money market accounts are valued and calculated using the amortized cost of the securities held in the fund.

Government Bonds – When U.S Treasury Securities are no longer traded in active markets they are valued using the income approach and present value techniques. U.S. bonds that are not listed are valued using broker quotes for identical securities in an inactive market or quotes for similarly-rated securities in active markets.

Corporate Bonds – Consists of corporate bonds structured as a commingled fund. The fair value has been estimated using the net asset value per share of the fund at year-end based on the current market value of each investment and reinvested investment income.

Common and Preferred Stocks – Level 2 stock investments are structured as commingled funds, and fair value has been estimated using the net asset value per share of the fund at year end. Their fair value is based on observable inputs, which include market prices for similar assets in the active market.

The following is a description of investments measured at NAV.

Cash Surrender Value of Life Insurance – The cash surrender value of life insurance policies is valued based on the calculated net asset value of the underlying pooled assets. The policy has a 3-5 day distribution period upon notice of redemption.

Beneficial Interest In Assets Held by Community Foundation – The investments held by the Community Foundation are pooled by the Community Foundation into a larger investment fund, wherein the Straz Center's investment is valued based on a calculated net asset value per share of the Foundation's total investment fund.

Systematic Momentum – During the fiscal years ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, certain endowment monies were invested in Systematic Momentum FuturesAccess LLC Class A (the "Fund"), a FuturesAccess Program fund under the direction of Merrill Lynch Alternative Investments LLC ("MLAI"), the sponsor of the Fund. The Fund is an alternative investment and operates as a "fund of funds" allocating and reallocating its capital among seven underlying FuturesAccess Funds.

The FuturesAccess Program fund is a group of commodity pools sponsored by MLAI, each of which places substantially all of its assets in a managed futures or forward trading account managed by a single or multiple commodity trading advisors. The Fund trades mostly in equity indices, fixed income markets, currencies, and commodities.

Recurring fair value measurements of the Fund use significant unobservable inputs (Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy). Level 3 pricing inputs are unobservable and include situations where there is little, if any, market activity for the investment. Consequently, unobservable inputs include inputs for which market data are not available and that are developed using the best information available about the assumptions market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability.

MLAI provides fair value estimates in its monthly Fund statements, utilizing the services of Interactive Data Pricing and Reference Data LLC ("Interactive Data"). Interactive Data provides fair value information services for international equity securities and indices, options, and futures, as well as valuations for complex structured products and OTC derivatives. Fair value for the Fund is determined using valuation methodologies that consider a range of factors, including but not limited to the nature of the investment, local market conditions, trading values on public exchanges for comparable securities, current and projected operating performance and financing transactions subsequent to the acquisition of the investment. The inputs into the determination of fair value require significant management judgment.

The Fund offers a semi-monthly liquidation opportunity, with the effective liquidation dates occurring at the middle and end of each month. There are no other significant restrictions on the ability to sell the investment. There are no unfunded commitments.

As per the respective lease agreement, the Straz Center is leasing its operating facility from the City of Tampa for $100 per year for a period of 99 years unless sooner terminated, and provides further that the lease shall automatically be renewed for successive 10-year terms unless any party gives the other party 180 days' notice of termination of the lease agreement prior to the expiration of any term. According to information provided by the City of Tampa, the estimated insured value of the operating and education facility (excluding contents) is approximately $150,000,000.

Note 6—Debt

Line of Credit - The Foundation obtained a secured but uncommitted revolving line of credit (the "Line") in May 2010 to meet working capital and capital expenditure business continuity contingencies. The Line is payable upon demand. Unrestricted endowment investments are being used as the secured assets. The loan value is committed at 80% of the Foundation's respective fixed income investment account held with Merrill Lynch, resulting in a $6,128,696 and $4,352,884 committed amount available at September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. The outstanding balance on the Line for the years ended September 30, 2016 and 2015 totaled $1,240,284 and $1,574,842, respectively. The interest rate was approximately 1.9% and 1.6%, for the years ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. Any needs for future drawings on the Line by the Straz Center itself will be done through an established loan agreement policy between the Straz Center and Foundation.

Loan - The Straz Center entered into a three-year $2,000,000 collateralized loan arrangement during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2013. This loan is for funding business capital project needs. The collateral on the loan is the pledges of respective gifts for the Straz Center's capital fundraising initiative. The stated terms of the loan are: a) interest rate of 30 Day LIBOR, plus 235 floating basis points (2.35%), with no floor and b) maturity date of August 15, 2016. The loan was renewed at maturity and converted to an unsecured revolving line of credit with a new maturity date of May 16, 2017. There was no change to the stated interest rate. The outstanding balance was $400,000 at September 30, 2016.

Interest expense incurred on these debt instruments for the years ended September 30, 2016 and 2015 totaled $25,802 and $26,436, respectively.

Note 9—Endowments

In July 2012, Florida passed a version of the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (“UPMIFA”). UPMIFA removes the historic dollar value measurement of endowments established by the Uniform Management of Institutional Funds Act. Accounting Standards require organizations functioning under an enacted version of UPMIFA to recognize endowment earnings as temporarily restricted net assets until appropriated.

The Straz Center follows all applicable Florida law with respect to donor-restricted endowment funds. The Straz Center complies with any donor-imposed restrictions on the use of the investment income or net appreciation resulting from the donor-restricted permanent endowment funds. However, when there is an absence of donor restrictions on the use of the investment income or net appreciation, the Straz Center follows applicable law. The Straz Center interprets Florida law as requiring the Straz Center to maintain the historic dollar value of donor-restricted endowments as permanently restricted, absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. Therefore, the Straz Center classifies as permanently restricted net assets (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment, and (c) accumulations of the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulations are made to the fund. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified as permanently restricted net assets is classified as temporarily restricted net assets until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Straz Center in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by Florida law. In accordance with Florida law, the Straz Center considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

1. The duration and preservation of the fund.
2. The purposes of the Straz Center and donor-restricted endowment fund.
3. General economic conditions.
4. The possible effect of inflation and deflation.
5. The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments.
6. Other resources of the Straz Center.
7. The investment policies of the Straz Center.

Return Objective and Risk Parameters – The investment objectives for the Straz Center are stated below in order of importance:

- a. Growth of Capital – Emphasis on long-term growth of the investment assets of the Foundation and Straz Center. The returns should meet or exceed appropriate benchmark indices while incurring less risk than such benchmarks/indices.
- b. Preservation of Purchasing Power After Spending – Asset growth that exceeds spending plus inflation over a three-year period.
- c. The investment goal of the equity portfolio is that the annual return will match and/or exceed appropriate performance benchmark(s) by investment style to the asset managers selected.

The Foundation's Investment Committee and Board of Directors recognizes that risk (i.e., the uncertainty of future events), volatility (i.e., the potential for variability of asset values), and the possibility of loss in purchasing power (due to inflation and U.S. dollar depreciation) are present to some degree in all types of investment vehicles. While high levels of risk are to be avoided, as evidenced by high volatility and low quality rated securities, the assumption of risk is warranted and encouraged in order to allow the asset manager the opportunity to achieve satisfactory long-term results consistent with the goals, objectives, and character of the Foundation. All assets selected for the portfolio must have a readily ascertainable market value, and must be readily marketable.

Strategies Employed for Achieving Objectives – To meet the needs of the Straz Center, the Straz Center’s investment strategy emphasizes a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends) by following the strategies outlined above.

Spending Policy and How the Investment Objective Relates to Spending Policy – The Foundation’s Board of Directors, on the recommendation of the Investment Committee, has adopted a spending policy that governs the annual distributions from the pooled endowment funds that may be expended for current operations of the Straz Center. This policy authorizes the Foundation to distribute from its pooled endowment funds a specified percentage, to be determined by the Board of Directors (“Board”) from time to time, of the market at budget time or fiscal year-end of those pooled endowment funds. The policy also allows the Board to base the distribution formula on the average market value over a period of several years if it chooses to do so. For the fiscal year ended September 30, 2016, the Foundation’s Board of Trustees authorized the distribution and expenditure of five percent (5%) of the current market value of the endowment as of September 30, 2016. Distributions cannot exceed the accumulated unspent earnings of the endowment without the Foundation’s Board approval. Income earned in excess of the spending rate may be reinvested in endowment principal. This is consistent with the Foundation’s objective to maintain the purchasing power of endowment assets as well as to provide additional real growth through investment return.

Changes in endowment funds consist of the following for the year ended September 30, 2016:

The Straz Center receives city, county, state, and Federal grants for annual operations, program support, and capital projects. During 2016, a grant from the City of Tampa was received for general operating support, and a similar grant was received the prior fiscal year. Additionally, the City of Tampa maintains the Poe Garage Trust Fund, which is funded by a specified portion of Poe Garage parking receipts, to be used for major capital repairs and reconstruction projects for the Straz Center's facility. During 2016, three grants from Hillsborough County were received: (1) the Tourist Development Council grant, which was used to help promote the Straz Center in the tourism markets; (2) the Cultural Services to Support Educational Programs grant, funded by Seminole Gaming Pact revenue, which helped support the Straz Center's educational programs; similar grants were received the prior fiscal year; and (3) a grant was received for capital improvements at the Straz Center from Hillsborough County. During 2016, two grants from the State of Florida were received: (1) General Program Support (formerly Cultural and Museum Grant) which was applied as general education and operating support (a similar grant was received the prior fiscal year); and (2) the Cultural Endowment Program grant to match gifts raised by the Center's Foundation to help build and fund its endowment. During 2016, one grant from the Federal Government's National Endowment for the Arts was received to help promote culturally diverse programming, and a similar grant was received the prior fiscal year.

Note 11—Retirement plan

The Straz Center has a defined contribution retirement plan for full-time employees. The Straz Center contributes up to 8% of eligible gross salaries and employees are fully vested upon meeting eligibility requirements. Additionally, employees may voluntarily elect to contribute up to the maximum as allowed under Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code. The monies are invested and administered by an independent agent. Retirement contribution expenses were $351,181 and $331,157 for the years ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

Note 12—Commitments and contingencies

Grant Funding – The Straz Center is subject to audit examination by funding sources to determine compliance with grant conditions. In the event that expenditures would be disallowed, repayment could be required. Management believes the Straz Center is materially in compliance with the terms of its grant agreements.

Sabbatical Leave – During the year ended September 30, 2015, the Straz Center entered into Addendum C to the employment agreement with Straz Center's President and Chief Executive Officer (the "Executive") extending the term of the original employment agreement, effective October 1, 2008, to September 30, 2016. Per terms of this addendum, the Executive is entitled to up to three months of time off for sabbatical leave to be used for professional or personal purposes. Any time not used during the term of the agreement will be paid out at the end of the agreement. During the year ended September 30, 2016, the Straz Center entered into Addendum D with the Executive, extending the terms of the employment agreement, effective October 1, 2016 to September 30, 2021. No other significant changes were made as a result of this addendum. The Straz Center recorded $106,963 and $103,848 for the sabbatical leave accrual, included in accounts payable and accrued expenses on the accompanying consolidated statements of financial position, for the years ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

Note 13—Related-party transactions

Contributions for the years ended September 30, 2016 and 2015 include the following:

	2016	2015
Board of Directors and Trustees	$ 836,513	$ 832,540

The following gross pledges receivable were outstanding at September 30, 2016:

	2016	2015
Board of Directors and Trustees	$ 13,394,154	$ 14,969,671

Additionally, the Straz Center paid approximately $7,500 and $3,400 for housing lease payments for the Artistic Director pursuant to an employment agreement, dated March 12, 2015, included in production costs in the accompanying consolidated statement of activities for the years ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

During the year ended September 30, 2016, the Straz Center had expenses totaling approximately $641,000 to a vendor that is owned by an employee of the Straz Center.

Note 14—Concentrations of credit risk

The Straz Center maintains its cash and cash equivalents with large financial institutions in the United States. All accounts at each financial institution are guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000. The Straz Center from time to time may have amounts of deposits in excess of the insured limits. Management does not anticipate nonperformance by these financial institutions. The Straz Center had bank statement balances of approximately $2,480,000 which exceeded these insured amounts at September 30, 2016.
